

Roger Morris received both his B.S. degree cum laude in pharmacy and his law degree magna cum laude from the University of Pittsburgh. Prior to joining Quarles & Brady, he owned and operated a retail pharmacy. He continues to maintain his registration to practice both pharmacy and law in Arizona and Pennsylvania. Currently, he chairs Quarles & Brady's Health & Life Sciences Industry Group and is involved in advice, litigation, business licensure and professional board representation for a wide variety of health care professionals.