The National Association of Specialty Pharmacy (NASP) is the only nonprofit national association representing all stakeholders in the specialty pharmacy industry. The mission of NASP is to elevate the practice of specialty pharmacy by developing, delivering and promoting continuing professional education and specialty certification while advocating for public policies that ensure patients have appropriate access to specialty medications in tandem with critical services. NASP members include the nation's leading specialty pharmacies, pharmaceutical and biotechnology manufacturers, nurses, pharmacy technicians, group purchasing organizations, patient advocacy groups, integrated delivery systems and health plans, technology and data management vendors, wholesalers/distributors and practicing pharmacists. With over 135 corporate members and more than 1,800 individual members, NASP is the unified voice of specialty pharmacy in the United States.

At NASP, we are committed to advancing specialty pharmacy education and providing programs and services to improve patient care. As such, the annual meeting provides numerous opportunities for specialty pharmacy professionals to earn continuing education credit through interactive educational sessions. The meeting offers four preconference workshops designed to provide additional opportunities to enhance attendees' knowledge and earn CE credit. The Specialty Pharmacy Law Conference, Certified Specialty Pharmacist Examination Preparatory Course, Hospital and Health System Network Specialty Pharmacy Workshop and the Technology Day Workshop are all offered on Monday, September 27, 2021.

NASP strongly encourages conference attendees, sponsors, and exhibitors to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19. Everyone is welcome to wear a mask, socially distance and encouraged to frequently wash/sanitize their hands. In addition, participants who have not been vaccinated against COVID-19 must wear a mask during all conference activities. NASP will not be liable to any conference attendees, sponsors, or exhibitors for any illnesses or infections contracted during the conference, including but not limited to COVID-19. In consideration of your participation in the conference, you agree to accept the risk of contracting an illness or infection, including but not limited to COVID-19, during conference activities.

NASP provides attendees with robust opportunities to extend their clinical and practical pharmacy knowledge, with the ultimate goal of making a positive impact on patients.

Sample Letter to Employer

Dear _____,

I would like to attend the National Association of Specialty Pharmacy (NASP) 2021 Annual Meeting & Expo from September 27 - 30, 2021, at the Marriott Marquis in Washington, DC.

NASP is the unified voice of specialty pharmacy, representing specialty pharmacies, pharmaceutical and biotechnology manufacturers, group purchasing organizations, patient advocacy groups, integrated delivery systems and health plans, wholesalers/distributors, and pharmacists.

The NASP 2021 Annual Meeting & Expo provides an opportunity to gain updates on industry market dynamics and trends through educational sessions, obtain continuing education credits, network with specialty pharmacy professionals and meet with exhibitors. NASP is working with federal, state, and local health officials to strictly adhere to current rules and requirements and do everything possible to protect the health and safety of all attendees.

Both the company and I can benefit from my attendance. I am confident that the knowledge I obtain from attending this educational conference can be applied to my daily practice, as well as support company business objectives, and, most importantly, provide patients with the best possible care.

I estimate the total cost to be _____. I appreciate your consideration in affording me this opportunity to enhance my industry knowledge and collaborate with specialty pharmacy colleagues. I assure you that I will take full advantage of the programs offered, and I would be happy to share the learnings with our team.

Sincerely,

To learn more about the NASP conference or to register, please visit
